2/ 1 EASTCOTE FARM, , SILLOTH

A stunning four bedroom, two bathroom, two reception room barn conversion with lawned garden and off street parking for three vehicles situated less than a five minute walk to the sea front of Silloth. The double glazed and gas central heated accommodation provides a spacious family home with potential to extend further. A spacious entrance hall with understairs storage leads to a lounge with an original stone fireplace housing a log burning stove, a modern kitchen with solid wood worksurfaces and integrated appliances, second sitting room with open fire and French doors leading out to the rear garden. Utility room, ground floor shower room and workshop/garage. To the first floor there is a spacious light and airy landing with sea views leading to four double bedrooms, with walk-in wardrobe/dressing room to the master, and a four piece modern stylish bathroom. Externally to the front of the property there is off street parking for three vehicles and the potential to utilise the workshop as extra garage space. Generous rear lawned garden bordered by trees and provides a safe secure space for children or pets with pleasant seating areas and an open aspect to the side. Conveniently situated less than a five minute walk to the sea front with the amenities of Silloth within close proximity including schools, shops, post office and doctors surgery.
