The welcoming entrance opens into a long, elegant hallway that leads through to a wide staircase, hinting at the generous proportions found throughout the property. Natural light pours into the house from every angle, enhancing its bright and uplifting atmosphere. Inside, you'll find three bedrooms – two spacious doubles and a charming single. The bathroom is a true sanctuary, with a heritage roll-top bath and classic Burlington fittings, echoing the timeless charm of the property. The front room offers a beautiful focal point with its eye-catching fireplace, complemented by practical built-in storage. A second reception room continues the theme with an additional fabulous pantry.

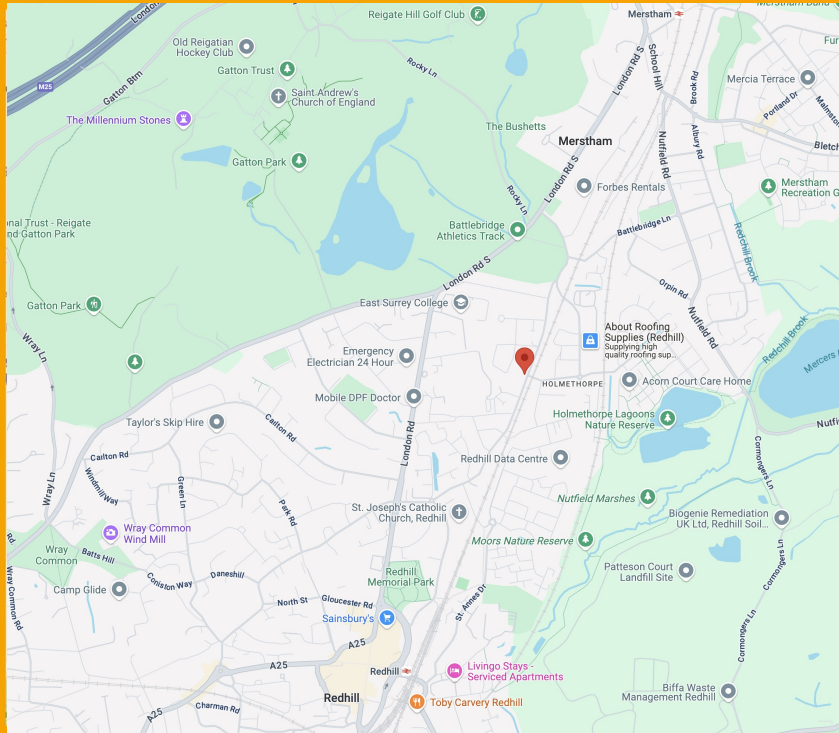

The kitchen is both functional and stylish. Outside, a utility room with power offers a perfect solution for drying and laundry, while the separate dedicated boiler cupboard. The rear garden is a true highlight. Bathed in sunlight and designed with a Chelsea Flower Show feel, it's an oasis for the green-fingered or those who simply appreciate natural beauty.

This exceptional home offers the best of both worlds – period charm with contemporary comforts.
