Additional Information

About The Area:

Nestled at the foot of the Greensand Ridge, Wilstead is a picturesque and welcoming village located just four miles south of Bedford town centre, offering the perfect balance of peaceful village living with excellent everyday convenience.

Day-to-day life is well catered for, with a local shop, Post Office, pharmacy, two public houses, a village hall, and a range of takeaways all within easy reach. Families are particularly well served, with a well-regarded primary school, pre-school, playing fields, allotments, and a Multi Use Games Area all on the doorstep. The nearby Herrings Green Activity Farm is a popular local favourite for younger residents.

The village benefits from swift access to the A6, providing straightforward commuter links to Bedford and beyond, whilst retaining the quiet charm and strong community spirit that makes village life so appealing.
