2 Yew Tree Cottages, The Street, Pluckley, Kent. TN27 0QS.

£399,950 Freehold

Property Summary

"As you walk through this cottage, you cannot help but feel this property has so many stories to tell". - Philip Jarvis, Director.

A Grade II listed cottage arranged over three floors. Believed to date back to the seventeenth century, there are so many character features on offer to include exposed beams, floorboards and Dering windows. It is believed it have formed part of what was originally a larger property with a close relationship with the Dering family of Pluckley.

The accommodation is currently arranged with a kitchen/breakfast room and sitting room downstairs. A large feature part stone staircase leads to two bedrooms and the bathroom and then on the second floor is a large main bedroom that could alternatively be used as a second sitting room.

Outside there is a garden area laid to lawn with two decking areas plus a large shed and parking space for one car.

Rarely does such an interesting property become available, so an internal viewing comes most recommended.

Pluckley is an ever popular village with a shop, primary school, two public houses and a railway station. The larger villages of Charing, Lenham and Headcorn are all easily accessed. The market town of Ashford and county town of Maidstone are also both access within a thirty minute drive.
