Description

This recently renovated chalet style bungalow presents colour wash rendered and cedar clad elevations below a tiled roof with UPVC double glazing and gas central heating. Approached over a large reception hall, the spacious kitchen is fitted with a comprehensive range of appliances with Quartz working surfaces, ample space for a dining table and sliding double doors opening onto the garden. The living room has a dual aspect and a large additional room can be used as a ground floor bedroom or separate reception room depending on individual needs. The first floor provides three double bedrooms, one with an en-suite and a separate family bathroom. There is an integral garage and the whole is conveniently situated on the outskirts of the village and within easy reach of Battle Town Centre.

Directions

From Battle, proceed south along the High Street to the roundabout and take the first exit onto Marley Lane. Continue along Marley Lane until reaching the A21. Turn right and continue to the left turning towards Sedlescombe. Turn immediately right where Vanlyn will be found as the second driveway on the left hand side.
