Standing in the very heart of the historic cathedral city of Lichfield on one of its oldest streets lies this highly impressive Grade 2 Listed town house. From its attractive but unassuming frontage the property opens to become a most generous family home across its three floors. With character, history and charm at every turn, the property fulfils all that you would expect of a mid 18th Century family home within this iconic area. Lichfield cathedral with its three spires is a near neighbour and one can enjoy a lovely morning coffee in the garden looking at the majestic spires towering over the garden wall.
