

A well-presented two-bedroom ground floor maisonette with driveway and large private rear garden, ideally situated close to local amenities.

This attractive home has been tastefully modernised to create a light, airy, and spacious feel throughout. The fully fitted kitchen offers ample storage and worktop space, with direct access to the generous rear garden, complete with a raised patio area and outside storage.

The stylish living room features hard flooring, a large front-aspect window, and built-in storage, creating a bright and welcoming space. The modern three-piece bathroom includes a shower over the bath. The main bedroom, with built-in wardrobe, comfortably accommodates a double bed, while the second bedroom is perfect as a single room, nursery, or home office.

With its combination of outdoor space, convenient layout, and excellent location, this property is ideal for a first-time buyer, downsizer, or investor.
