

This spacious three bedroom property stretches 1,333 square ft. and sits in a prime location for accessing Langley Station and multiple highly regarded schools, including Langley Grammar School being just a 5 minute walk from the house.

Recent renovations to the property include a fully insulated cabin with power and light, large 15ft conservatory with underfloor heating, and solar panels that are held on a 25 year lease, with no additional cost.

The property comprises a welcoming entrance hall leading to living room to the front, and a fantastic size kitchen/diner with some included appliances. Two double bedrooms are found on the first floor, along with a further single bedroom, and separate WC and bathroom.

The impressive garden is of moderate size and mostly laid to lawn, with some artificial lawn and patio for easy maintenance, as well as a delightful pond. Parking has been made available with a driveway at the front of the house, suitable for two cars.

The property is offered to the market in excellent clean and tidy condition throughout and ideally suits a family due to the fantastic size and location.
