Cow & Co
LONDON

This wonderful and generous sized detached family home offers generous sized accommodation throughout. It has been extremely well planned out and superbly kept and maintained.

Entering through the front door there is a spacious wide entrance hall that leads through at the rear to a large extended reception room which is great for entertaining and also has bi folding patio doors leading out to a superb decked, split level terrace which steps down to a beautifully kept lawned rear garden. There is a dining room to the front which also leads through to the fitted kitchen at the rear. The side of the property has been extended on the ground floor to provide a study/ 4th bedroom, a downstairs shower room/wc and a widened rear extended lounge.

The first floor comprises of a landing, three double bedrooms and a bathroom and wc and a second separate wc.

There is potential to extend into the loft or above the side extension (stpp).

The front garden is hard paved and provides off street parking for 4 cars. The rear Garden is stunning and also boasts a side access.

Located on Uxendon Hill and moments away from all the amenities of Preston Road including bus routes and the Underground station.

Viewing is very highly recommended.
