Description

Upon entering this delightful apartment you will immediately be struck by how bright and light the rooms feel. The large living/dining room has ample space for your furniture together with a very useful large fitted cupboard. The room opens up nicely into your well-presented kitchen with its range of attractive wall and base units and very handy breakfast bar. There is a built-in oven, and the fridge freezer and Miele washing machine can remain. Continuing through into the little hallway you have access to two double bedrooms again both bright and light and both providing built-in wardrobe space. Back out into the hallway and you access your shower room with built-in corner shower WC and wash hand basin. The hallway also provides access to a large built-in cupboard and a private loft offering generous storage space. Complimenting the apartment are pretty communal gardens a garage and shared parking spaces.
