Description

Alresford House is a stunning pair of listed period town houses converted by Raggett Developments in 2018, to their extremely high standards and specification. Now providing four spacious and individual luxuriously appointed apartments, retaining many period features affording charm and character and situated within the Georgian town centre.

Number 61 boasts its own entrance porch and entrance hall, light and airy sitting room, stunning fitted kitchen completed with granite worktops, ample base and wall mounted units, polished wooden floor and high specification integrated Lamona appliances. The kitchen opens up to a breakfast area with windows facing the rear elevation. There are two good sized bedrooms with fitted wardrobes, a contemporary fitted bathroom with additional shower and a third bedroom/office to the lower ground floor with fitted wardrobes. This apartment has gas central heating with underfloor heating in the basement.

Outside there are some raised flower beds to the side and front elevations in old stone and brick wall surrounds. There is a brick block covered driveway which currently provides parking for the 6 units in total, each with allocated spaces and this has the benefit of two allocated spaces. There is vehicle entrance off Crondall Lane and an exit into West Street on the other side of the development.

Leasehold with share of freehold - 999 years from 3rd May 2018. Each apartment owner is responsible for 25% of shared costs relating to the building and 16.66% of the costs relating to the shared outside parking areas, bin enclosures etc. (Circa £300 per annum for services and maintenance). Any works will be carried out by 6061 Weststreet Limited and apartment owners will be members of that Company. We have not been able to check this information via an inspection of the lease and management agreement and prospective buyers should consult their own solicitors for verification.
