116 Whitebeam Avenue, Bromley, Kent, BR2 8DW

Guide Price £550,000 to £565,000.

This well presented post war built family house is situated on the Bromley/Petts Wood borders, within walking distance of Petts Wood mainline station, the town centre amenities, nearby transport links (bus R7 and 208) for Bromley and Orpington, plus local reputable schools, including Crofton schools, Southborough school and St James RC School. It is also close to Bromley Common and Jubilee Parks for outdoor leisure pursuits. The property comprises three good sized bedrooms, a spacious lounge leading to a conservatory. There is a separate dining room leading to a stylish kitchen, which then leads on to the utility room and then a study. There is a large family garden which backs on to Bromley Common recreation fields. The property also has a private driveway for several vehicles. Benefits include double glazed windows, and a recently fitted gas central heating boiler. Viewing comes highly recommended. EXCLUSIVE TO PROCTORS.
