About the Property

On entering the property there is an impressive reception hallway that gives a true sense of arrival and grandeur and with double doors opening to one of the reception rooms the feeling of space is further enhanced. The reception rooms are located to the rear of the property and are semi-open plan to allow for both a formal living space and a more relaxed lounging area.

The kitchen/dining is also positioned to the rear of the property and this room opens to a garden room that overlooks the rear garden. Adjacent to the kitchen there is a useful utility room, and a courtesy door leads through to the integral garage. To the first floor, the principal bedroom has a dressing area and a private ensuite bathroom. Two further double bedrooms on this level enjoy private ensuite bathrooms whilst the fourth double bedroom has use of the family bathroom.

Stairs rise from the first floor landing to the top floor where there is a loft room which has been used as both a home office and secondary reception/Harbour room. A balcony is accessed from this room where you can enjoy the most incredible water views.

The property has a gated approach and offers off-street parking and access to the garage. To the rear, the garden is mainly laid to lawn and mature planting in the borders provides a high degree of privacy.

About the Location

Sandbanks is known for being one of the UK's most exclusive places to live, with land values being one of the highest in the world. Located within a short distance of Canford Cliffs village and Lilliput, the Sandbanks peninsula offers sandy beaches with stunning and picturesque views towards Old Harry Rocks.

Poole and Bournemouth town centres are a short distance away, with mainline train links to Southampton and London Waterloo. The chain ferry provides access to The Purbecks, Studland and Swanage. There are a variety of amenities on Sandbanks such as Tesco express, café, newsagent and the famous Rick Stein restaurant.
