Description

This attractive three storey period property stands on elevated ground with stunning rural views towards the English Channel yet just a short stroll from the village shop and primary school. Viewing is essential to appreciate the spacious accommodation that is laid out over three floors and retains a great deal of character and charm. Arranged around a large reception hall, there are two principle reception rooms, both with open fireplaces. The dining room opens into the kitchen which looks out onto the garden and the fields beyond. Over the first and second floor are three/four bedrooms and a large family bathroom. All the bedrooms enjoy lovely rural views either to the front or rear and outside there is a small enclosed garden, off road parking and a double garage. With its convenient location being close to the centre of the village and within a short drive of the historic town of Battle, viewing is highly recommended.

Directions

From our office in Battle High Street proceed in a northerly direction taking the third exit at the roundabout onto the A2100 London Road. Proceed down the hill turning left signposted Netherfield and continue all the way along Netherfield Road where the property will be found towards the end on the right hand side just after the old Netherfield Arms public house.
