There is also huge potential for the property to be converted into luxury apartments, subject to the necessary planning permissions and regulations being in place. The property itself was built in the Victorian era and still retains some of the original period features. There are high ceilings, bay windows, Mosaic flooring and a stunning feature staircase. The accommodation is arranged over 3 floors with a range of mezzanines and family accommodation suites. The current vendors have continued to maintain and improve the property, including a new retaining wall and re-wiring of the top two floors (carried out approximately six years ago). The property itself offers three reception rooms, a bar, commercial kitchen, laundry and storage room and 13 en-suite bedrooms.
