SITUATION

The property is situated close to the centre of this desirable quiet Kentish village along a no through road in an area of outstanding natural beauty on the Chevening Estate. There is a local shop, public house/restaurant and church and it lies about 4 miles from Knockholt Station which offers excellent rush hour services to central London. The village lies on the North Downs surrounded by delightful green belt countryside with superb walking. Chelsfield and Orpington Stations are both about five miles distant and provide fast and frequent services to central London. Bluewater shopping centre and Bromley town centre are about 15 minutes and 20 minutes drive respectively. Sevenoaks station for services on the Charing Cross line is about 5 miles. The town of Sevenoaks with its varied facilities including shops, restaurants, library, fitness centre and swimming pool complex is about 5.7 miles. There is access to the M25 at junction 4, Badgers Mount and also junction 5 at Chevening.

DIRECTIONS

From the direction of Sevenoaks, take the London Road, pass the station and continue into Riverhead. Go straight over both roundabouts, through Dunton Green, and upon reaching the Rose and Crown public house, bear left. At the roundabout go straight ahead and up Star Hill. Upon reaching Knockholt bear left (Harrow Road) turn left onto Chevening Lane and The Old Police Station can be found a little way along on your right hand side.
