Excellent turnover and profits – business development opportunities

BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

Traditional English pub offering family dining and a good range of local and regional ales with a good mix of local and visitor trade. In excellent decorative order and featuring open beams, wood burner in feature fireplace, wood panelling and timber plank flooring.

With over 35 internal covers and 15 external, the pub is open 7 days a week from midday to 11pm and currently offers food during the evenings and weekends.

Accounts of trade available to interested parties usually after viewing.

The establishment is presently run by the proprietor with up to five part-time staff according to season/ demand.

This business requires dedication to maintain the high standards that have been set and with other business commitments pending, the proprietor is seeking to offer this genuinely great opportunity to another at a very reasonable price to encourage continuity of the business.

There are service areas that include a fully fitted kitchen, male & female WC's and a separate fully equipped cellar and keg storage. To the rear of the cellar is a boiler room and further dry goods store.

Upstairs there are two apartments. Emily's View is the larger and on two levels with an entrance hall, cupboard space, living room, dining room (could create additional bedroom), fitted kitchen and bathroom. On the second floor is a sitting room with two additional bedrooms.

Emily's Nook provides an entrance hall leading to an open plan living/ dining/ kitchen, bedroom and shower room.

The business of the public house and the holiday lets are accounted for separately and run as two separate businesses.

PRICE

The Freehold of this pub with rooms, including the fixtures and fittings, is offered at £495,000.
