Guide Price £300,000 - £325,000

This well-presented two-bedroom bungalow is offered to the market with no onward chain, making it an ideal opportunity for buyers seeking a straightforward purchase.

The home features a practical and well-designed layout, including a spacious lounge/diner, fitted kitchen, two bedrooms, a modern shower room, and the added convenience of a garage.

The accommodation flows comfortably throughout, with ample built-in storage and a layout well suited to downsizers, first-time buyers, or those looking for a low-maintenance home. The generous lounge/diner sits at the heart of the property, offering a bright and versatile living space. Both bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, with the larger bedroom offering ample room for furnishings and the second bedroom functioning perfectly as a guest room, study, or hobby space. The kitchen and shower room have been thoughtfully arranged for ease of use, and the bungalow also benefits from a hallway, porch, and two storage cupboards. Externally, the property enjoys a nice position within the cul-de-sac and garage which is ideal for further storage.

Location

Littell Tweed is a nice residential cul-de-sac located within the highly sought-after Chelmer Village area of Chelmsford. Popular for its blend of convenience, community feel, and plentiful amenities, the area caters to a broad range of lifestyles.

Nearby, residents can enjoy easy access to Asda Superstore, a local retail park, pubs, cafés, medical facilities, and everyday essentials. Chelmer Village Square provides further shopping conveniences, gym facilities, and dining options. Green spaces are a key attraction in Chelmer Village, with several parks, play areas, and walking routes—including the riverside paths along the River Chelmer—ideal for outdoor recreation. The area is also served by regular local bus routes and offers quick road connections to the A12 and A130, making it attractive for commuters.
