PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This delightful traditional terraced residence offers tremendous potential and is situated in a quiet cul-de-sac with blue brick pavements offering a distinctly Dickensian feel. All the usual amenities are within comfortable reach including regular bus services, local shops and all grades of school. Tamworth town centre is approximately 1½ miles distance whilst access to the M42 is just two or three minutes drive away.

Constructed in brick, the house fronts directly to the wide blue brick paved pavement.

Having the benefit of gas central heating via radiators, the accommodation comprises:
