The Property

An eye catching character three double bedroom detached house originally dating back to circa 1890, having been owned by the same family for some 70 years. The property has scope for improving/extending (subject to the normal permissions) and sits in a plot of approximately 0.34 acre. No onward chain.

On the ground floor the property has a welcoming reception hall, sitting room, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room with built-in oven and hob leading to a utility room, shower room and lean-to storage room. There are three double bedrooms with original fireplaces, a decorative balcony and a shower room. The property has gas fired central heating by radiators and the boiler was replaced approximately 5 years ago.

Outside, the front garden is mainly shingle with ample off road parking for several vehicles, and there is a timber built garage with power and light, measuring approx. 24'10" x 12'4". The rear gardens are well laid out and established.

EPC Rating: E | Council Tax F: £3,731.83 p.a. (2026/2027)
