Grounds & Gardens

The house is approached by a paved path leading to the front porch. There is also a single garage with a window and boarded storage, in front of which is a private parking space. The main garden lies to the rear of the house, is level and laid to lawn with mature shrubs and planting at the side boundaries. The rear boundary is fenced but left largely unobstructed to better enjoy the open view across unspoilt fields.

Situation

The property is situated in the village of Hordle and epitomises the peace and tranquillity of the New Forest. Hordle, is a semi-rural village with numerous facilities and an 'Outstanding' rated primary school. The village lies between Lymington, a popular market town famed for its river and marinas and New Milton which offers comprehensive leisure and shopping facilities with excellent schools nearby. To the north east is the New Forest village of Brockenhurst which has a mainline railway station providing a half hourly service to London Waterloo with a journey time of approximately 90 minutes.
