Charming maisonette with enviable Victorian character, this first floor maisonette in the prestigious village of Farnham Common offers privacy, calm and countryside surrounds.

The immaculate interior beautifully balances modern living with the charm of its era.

The layout flows seamlessly from the sunlit rear kitchen with appliances and dining area, into the spacious living room featuring classic sash windows and a cosy fireplace.

The master bedroom features high ceilings and original period details, enhancing the sense of space and character.

A generous landing area provides the perfect spot for a work-from-home station, while a sleek, modern double shower room adds a touch of luxury. This cosy maisonette is the ideal blend of period elegance and contemporary comfort.

Step over the road to enjoy the outdoors with national park Burnham Beeches literally on your doorstep .Or take a stroll to one of the traditional village pubs , stylish bistros and restaurants or do your all important top up shop at the express supermarkets in the High Street .

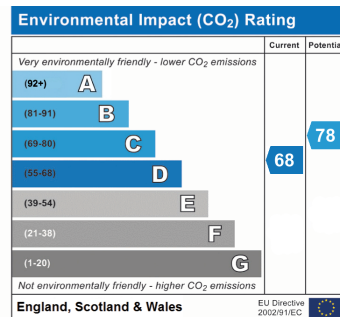

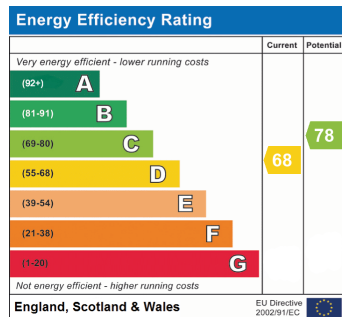

For sports enthusiasts Farnham Royal sports club covering all main sports and exercise classes is local and convenient . Commuters avoid the hassle of stressful commutes with easy access to M40 or the regular and efficient bus links to Burnham or Slough station with the highly acclaimed Elizabeth Line

Farnham Common embraces village traditions with regular fetes , markets and seasonal celebrations .

Just a superb location to call home !
