Coopers Yard is situated adjacent to the west of the original Market Place. Since 1898 the yard had been home to T Brooker & Sons, a family company supplying building products and services to Hertfordshire from Bucklersbury. The design of the Coopers Yard development harks back to the earlier days with a pedestrian street linking the town centre and the west side of Hitchin with an attractive range of buildings in the heart of the historic town.

Hitchin is a charming medieval market town and has many fine Tudor and Georgian buildings, particularly around the market square. Near to the market square stands the large medieval parish church of St Mary. The town provides good shopping as well as a swimming pool, football team, two theatres, a wide variety of restaurants and pubs and highly regarded girls and boys schools. There is also a mainline railway station providing direct access to Kings Cross and Cambridge.
