Pickers Palmer Farm, Heywood, Westbury

BA13 4NE

- Q Class Development Opportunity
- Permission for 4 x 2 bed dwellings
- Rural location, close by to the town of Westbury
- Wiltshire Planning application number PL/2023/06122

Description

Located on the outskirts of Heywood, Wiltshire, Pickers Palmers Farm is a retired cattle farm with longstanding outbuildings. The building to the north of the site, and the independent building in the middle of the site is of breeze block construction, single skinned with an asbestos roof and steel A frame trusses. The site comes with a small parcel of land and has its own independent access to the East. There is restricted access to the West for emergency use only. There are uninterrupted views across to Bratton and the Westbury White Horse.

Planning

Planning was granted in September 2023 under Q class regulations for change of use of agricultural buildings to four residential dwellings. Further details regarding the full planning consent can be found via the Wiltshire Council online Planning Portal using reference PL/2023/06122. Interested parties must satisfy their own planning investigations.

Plot Descriptions

Planning for a terrace of 4 single storey 2 bed units with associated parking for 2 vehicles per unit. When built, under current market conditions, each unit will be in the region of £275,000 - £325,000, making the overall GDV of the development as a whole in the region of approximately 1.2 million.
