Description

Viewing is essential to appreciate the location of this attractive detached oast house that is set back off a private road amidst a cluster of just three other properties. Secure but not isolated, the property sits in mature gardens that offer a good deal of privacy with the paddocks all amounting to approximately 3.69 acres with secure gated access. The property takes full advantage of its lovely rural setting with attractive views beyond the gardens.

At the heart of the property is a large kitchen/breakfast room that opens into a roundel sitting room with wood burning stove. The garden room enjoys views of the gardens and there is calor gas central heating through the property. The first floor provides up to four bedrooms and an electric loft ladder leads to useful attic room/occasional bedroom. The property enjoys delightful gardens that provide privacy with ample parking, double garage and separate double carport.
