Properties to be converted are rare these days so take your chance to purchase this semi detached barn in a semi rural position just outside the sought after village of Eaglesfield which benefits from planning permission to be converted into a three bedroom home. The proposed accommodation includes an entrance hall with ground floor bathroom, living room, kitchen, utility, three bedrooms and en-suite shower room. In addition there is a recently purchased area of garden to the rear and off road parking provided at the front. Further details on plans are available from the Cockermouth Office.
