Bill Tandy and Company, Burntwood, are delighted to be offering to the market this recently built three bedroom semi-detached family home. Being only constructed circa 8 years ago, still within its warrantee period and finished to a hi-specification throughout this impeccably presented property offers a wealth of well thought out accommodation. The property is conveniently positioned along the Burntwood Road benefiting from off road parking for several vehicles as well as a detached single garage (currently used as an office) and low maintenance rear garden and boasts easy access onto the nearby Chasewater Country Park boasting a 90 hectare reservoir, plenty of green open space and a steam railway. The accommodation in brief comprises entrance hall, lounge, breakfast kitchen, guests W.C., three good sized bedrooms all including built in wardrobes with the master having an en suite shower room along side a family bathroom. Offering a detached single garage which is temporarily fitted as an office along with parking for at least three vehicles. An early viewing is considered essential to fully appreciate the accommodation on offer.
