

Haselrigge Road, Clapham Common, SW4 7EP

£762 p/w

Absolute Living are proud to market this beautifully finished period flat in the Clapham North area. This completely refurbished three bedroom two bath property is available from the mid November either furnished or unfurnished.

This stunning period end of terrace flat is finished to a high standard throughout. The large open plan kitchen, dining and living area runs front to back across the ground floor with herringbone flooring throughout. The modern kitchen is fully integrated with a convenient breakfast bar. The reception area at the front makes the most of the three large sash windows creating a bright and airy and elegant space with feature fireplace.

There are three double bedrooms in the property, the smallest of which is still comfortably a good sized double room. The master bedroom is to the rear of the basement level and features an ensuite shower room and private patio.

The generously sized garden features a large paved patio area, a decked sun terrace and a double glazed garden cabin. There is side access.
