PROPERTY SUMMARY

York House comprises a substantial detached property which is pleasantly located in a small hamlet known as The Marsh, surrounded by open farmland and just a mile from the highly sought-after black & white village of Weobley, and also with easy access to the Cathedral City of Hereford (9 miles) and the Market Towns of Leominster (8 miles) and Kington (10 miles).

The area is noted for its lovely woodland walks and there are 18-hole golf courses at Wormsley, Burghill and Kington. Within Weobley itself there are a range of amenities including a doctors surgery, bowls club, shop, public houses, restaurant, church, primary and secondary schools.

The property has been substantially extended and renovated to a very high standard including replacement uPVC double-glazing, Gas (LPG) central heating, high levels of insulation and low voltage downlighters throughout, and has very spacious accommodation which extends to approximately 2254 sq ft (inc garage). Garage, ample parking and large gardens which extend to approximately 0.56 acres.

The whole is more particularly described as follows: -
