GUIDE PRICE: £800,000-£825,000

An extended and immaculately presented four-bedroom family home, ideally situated in the sought-after Corbett Estate.

Arranged over three floors, this property features a welcoming entrance hall leading to a spacious living room with a delightful fireplace and bay windows overlooking the front of the property as well as a well-equipped utility room and a convenient downstairs WC. The ground floor has been thoughtfully extended, creating an open-plan kitchen and living area, flooded with natural light from a large skylight and bi-folding doors opening to the garden. This versatile space has been cleverly designed with sleek fitted units, integrated appliances, and a breakfast bar, creating functional and clearly defined areas for cooking, dining, and everyday family life. Stepping outside, the rear garden has been lovingly landscaped, creating the perfect setting for the whole family to enjoy warm summer days.

Upstairs, the first floor offers three bedrooms, including two good-sized doubles, and a family bathroom. The loft has been extended to create an expansive master bedroom with a modern ensuite shower room, bespoke fitted wardrobes, and ample storage space within the eaves. The current owners have further optimized this space with a partition wall, creating a handy study area that could also serve as an dressing area or nursery.

The local area boasts a variety of amenities, including a GP practice and the Corbett Community Library within walking distance, alongside a diverse selection of shops, supermarkets, and exciting places to eat and drink. Known for its family-friendly atmosphere, the Downhill Road is well-served by nurseries and schools and offers plenty of green spaces, including the popular Mountsfield and Forster Memorial Parks.
