

A superbly presented maisonette situated in the heart of Cookham village which comes to the market in turn key condition with no onward chain complications. This top floor property is accessed via a secure gated entrance from the High Street which also leads to the resident's allocated parking. Through the front door is the hallway which leads firstly to the second bedroom which would make an ideal home office, then onto the principal bedroom which is a wonderful size with bespoke, built in wardrobes and wooden shutters. The contemporary bathroom benefits from a shower over the bath and vanity storage unit.

The beautifully dressed reception room enjoys a double aspect allowing plentiful light and the well appointment modern kitchen has ample storage as well as space for preparing and cooking.

Externally, there is a pretty shared terrace which is the perfect space for outdoor dining and entertaining and there is one allocated parking space. Further benefits of this stunning maisonette includes large loft storage and a low service charge

This property has been skillfully renovated to create the perfect home nestled within the ever popular Cookham village with many independent shops and restaurants just a stones through away.
