GENERAL

An exceptional rural property being in close proximity to many places. Nearby places of interest include the Preseli hills which provide miles of trails within the National Park from where superb views and natural scenery are enjoyed which is found approximately 3 miles away. The Cardigan Bay coastline is approximately 8 miles from the property offering a wealth of sandy beaches and coves and excellent cliff top walks. The larger urban conurbations of Carmarthen and Haverfordwest are both within 45 minutes of the property enjoying connections to the M4 motorway and National Rail connections.

The property provides a traditional original dwelling benefitting from a modern extension to the rear providing an outstanding level of family living accommodation including feature living and family room, luxurious kitchen and dining space, cinema room as well as the ultimate principal bedroom with an array of dressing room space and feature en-suite. Externally the property is set within 1 acre of extending garden and mature grounds.

The property also offers useful steel frame outbuildings currently used for storage and workshop purposes.

The home presents an ideal opportunity as a luxurious family home but also has a potential income through Airbnb/Guest House use as well as consideration for converting some of the outbuildings into unique glamping style units.

This property is one of the finest homes currently on the market and must be viewed to be appreciated.
