Rosedene, 30 Mays Hill Road, Bromley, Kent BR2 0HT

Handsome double fronted mock Tudor four bedroom detached family home, having great charm and character, owned by the same family since the 1970's. Set within a popular tree lined road and just a short walk to the sought after Highfield and Harris Primary academy schools. Wood panelled entrance hall, two generous reception rooms with bay windows and brick fireplaces, West facing conservatory coming off the sitting room which enjoys views over the garden. The breakfast room has built in storage and connects through to the kitchen and separate cloakroom. Gas fired central heating with radiators to most of the rooms and double glazing. Some modernisation is required including reappointing the kitchen and bathroom and redecoration. Delightful West facing mature garden with central lawn, paved patio, various shrub borders and trees. Integral garage with electric up and over door approached via a private driveway with additional parking. Period features include wood panelling to the entrance hall and dining rooms, stripped flooring, period doors and fittings. This wonderful home offers extension potential subject to the necessary planning consents and gives incoming buyers the opportunity to stamp their own mark upon this home.
