

A two-story brick house with a red brick exterior. The front facade features two light green doors with small windows, each set under a white decorative pediment. Above the doors are two sets of white-framed windows. To the left of the first door is a white-framed window. To the right of the second door is another white-framed window. The house has a black gutter system. The front garden is filled with gravel and contains several potted plants in white and grey containers. A wooden fence is visible to the left of the house. The driveway in the foreground is paved with red bricks in a herringbone pattern.
