The Property

The property is approached via an entrance porch, leading into a grand entrance hallway with access to all principal rooms, including an under-stairs WC and an elegant turned staircase ascending to the first floor.

To the left, a spacious living room stretches from front to rear, enhanced by a bright triple aspect and featuring a central fireplace as a striking focal point. French doors open into the rear conservatory, offering delightful views over the garden.

At the front of the property, a generously proportioned dining room provides ample space for formal entertaining and connects seamlessly to a cosy snug room.

The rear of the home includes a substantial kitchen/dining area, fitted with a stylish range of shaker-style wall, floor, and drawer units, complemented by quality stone work surfaces and a peninsula breakfast bar. Appliances include a double oven, four-ring electric hob with extractor, and dishwasher. From the kitchen, there is access to a utility room, secondary WC, and a large pantry cupboard.

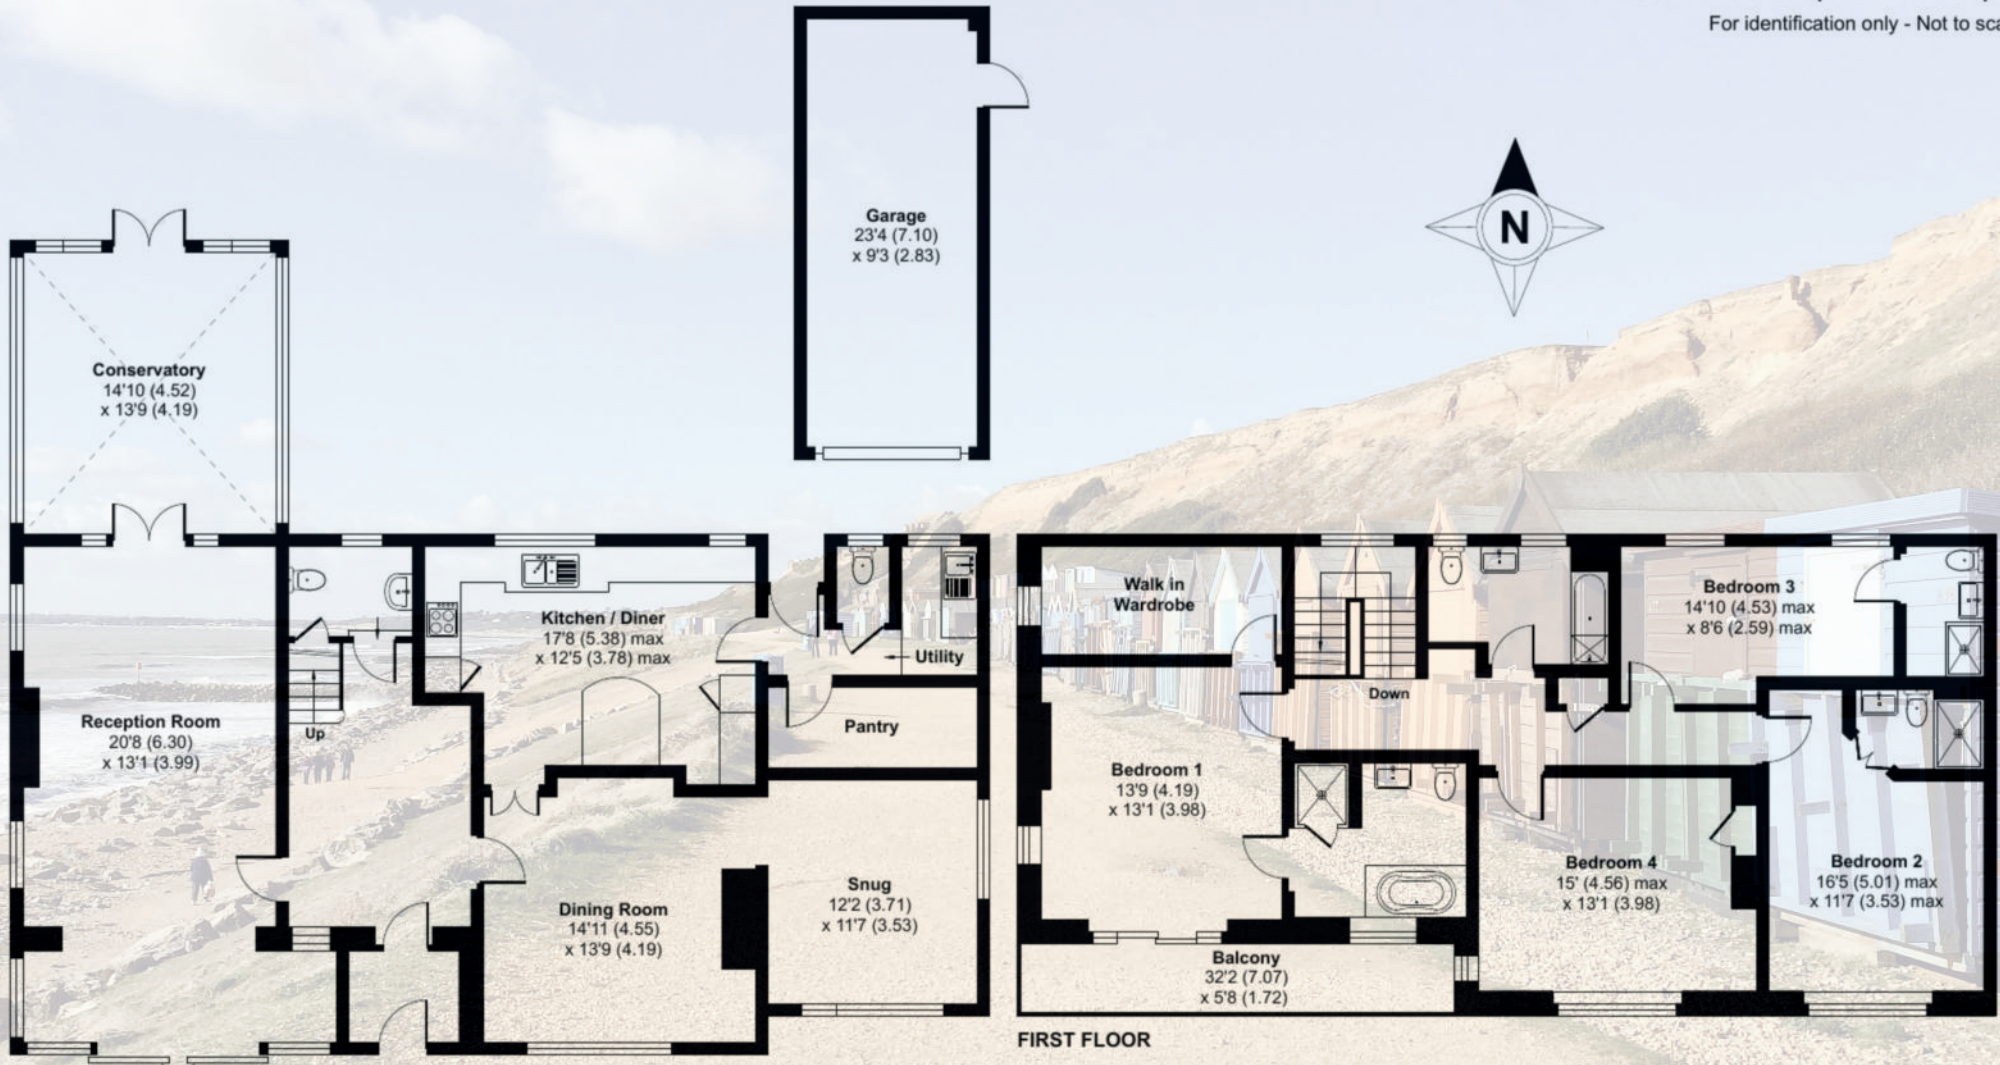

Upstairs, four spacious bedrooms offer comfortable accommodation, two of which feature en-suite facilities. The family bathroom comprises a panelled bath with shower attachment, WC, and hand wash basin, finished with partially tiled walls and flooring.

The principal bedroom includes a large walk-in wardrobe and sliding doors opening onto a south-facing balcony with composite decking and contemporary glass balustrade, providing uninterrupted coastal views. This suite also has a four-piece en-suite with a panelled bath, separate shower cubicle, and feature tiled walls.

The Local Area

Barton on Sea is a quiet residential area in a stunning coastal setting with beach and cliff top views across Christchurch Bay, sweeping from Hurst Castle to Hengistbury Head. The sand and shingle beach is popular with dog walkers while the cliff top attracts paragliders.

Barton has a history dating back to Anglo Saxon times, however it developed relatively recently. Apart from a row of old coastguard cottages, it mostly comprises avenues and closes of mid-century and modern family homes, chalets, imaginative new builds and substantial houses on leafy Barton Common Road.

Popular with retirees, Barton has been discovered by young families, attracted by the relaxed outdoorsy lifestyle, with coast on one side and New Forest on the other, plus good state and independent schools; these include Durlston Court and Ballard School, both rated 'excellent'.

Facilities include cliff top restaurants and Barton on Sea Golf Club, a 27-hole cliff top course. Barton also benefits from the extensive amenities of neighbouring New Milton. Among these are a mainline station with train services to London in around two hours, arts centre, selection of shops ranging from an M&S food store to a traditional department store and weekly market.
