About the Property

Constructed to an exacting standard, the property presents outstanding accommodation arranged over three levels. Undoubtedly the heart and hub of the ground floor is found in the kitchen/living/lifestyle area. This room extends to the full width of the property and full height glazing overlooks and opens to the garden. The lifestyle space this room provides is complemented by two further reception rooms. With three reception rooms the property comfortably handles the day to day requirements of family life and the flexible arrangement of rooms could prove ideal for purchasers wishing to accommodate guests or visiting family for extended stays.

To the first floor the principal bedroom suite cannot fail to impress. The dressing room and ensuite bathroom are a superb size and would rival the 'top drawer' suites of many Park Lane hotels. Two further ensuite bedrooms are located on this level and there is also a sensibly positioned laundry room to the first floor.

The second floor presents a secondary living area which has far reaching water views towards Poole Harbour and a further bedroom and bathroom.

We feel the gardens are a standout feature of this property. Not only is it a true rarity for a newly constructed home to enjoy such a large plot, but the garden also provides a high degree of year round privacy. To the front of the property there is a generous provision for parking and this leads to the electrically operated garage and front gates.

Technology

LED intelligent lighting on a motion sensor to stairwell and hallway: Alarm and security camera: Electric car charger: Mechanical ventilation with heat recovery (this extracts moisture laden air and replaces with fresh filtered air): Underfloor heating: Air source heat pump: Cat 6 cabling and wiring for wall mounted media.
