Location

Bucklesham is a popular village with its own primary school, village hall, public house and Church. There is also a playing field, which is solely for the enjoyment of the residents (and their friends) of the village.

Located just seven miles from the market towns of Woodbridge, Felixstowe and Ipswich, which all offer independent and national shops, bars, restaurants, leisure centres and railway stations, with Ipswich having a mainline railway station with a direct link to London Liverpool Street . There is easy access to the A12/A14, as well as the beautiful Suffolk Heritage Coast, and for the sailing enthusiast, there are many options at the River Deben, Orwell and Felixstowe seafront.
