Property Summary

A modern two double bedroom apartment with far reaching sea views, set in an iconic development moments from the amenities of Bournemouth Town Centre and Westbourne Village. The development has a pathway that leads through well-tended communal gardens to the beach, and this particular apartment has a superb layout with a duplex arrangement allowing for a large hallway with generous storage. With sea views, generous living accommodation and an incredibly convenient location, we feel this property is a great opportunity for buyers wanting to enjoy life by the sea.

Key Features

- Porterage service for residents
- Duplex entrance hallway with generous storage
- Living room opening to the dining area
- Modern fitted kitchen with appliances
- Two double bedrooms
- Large luxurious bathroom
- Balcony with far reaching sea and tree top views
- Secure parking
- No forward chain

About the Property

On entering the apartment, you are immediately impressed by the size of the entrance hallway. Stairs connect the upper and lower hallways and there is storage provision on both levels. Double doors open from the hallway to a dining area that is sensibly located next to the kitchen. The kitchen is fitted with a comprehensive range of units and appliances.

The living room is accessed through the dining area and has sliding doors that open to a balcony where you can enjoy the most incredible sea views. The balcony enjoys both Southerly and Westerly aspects.

There are two generous double bedrooms both with sea views, and these are serviced by a luxurious bathroom. The large bathroom has a bath and a separate shower unit.

The development sits in well-tended communal grounds which has a pathway that leads directly to the cliff top where you can easily access the sandy beaches below. Throughout this property has a sense of space and light and we believe it would make both an ideal second home or permanent residence.

The apartment comes with an allocated underground parking space, one visitor parking permit and an underground lock up.
