LOCATION

Crickham is a small hamlet situated just one mile from the village of Wedmore and holds a real sense of community holding many local events with the neighbouring hamlets of Cocklake and Clewer, including the annual 3 C's Harvest home. There is also a public house nearby called the Trotters. The hamlet also has a beautiful Baptist Chapel with stunning views across the Moor and to the Mendip Hills and Glastonbury Tor.

The historic village of Wedmore has a wealth of local amenities, including a village shop, butchers, fish mongers and three pubs. Transport links to the A38 with direct links to Bristol International Airport (c 14 miles) and the M5 junction 22 (c 7 miles). The Cathedral City of Wells is c 12 miles distant whilst the larger centres of Bristol and Bath are c 23 and 30 miles respectively. The property also falls within the popular Hugh Sexey/Kings of Wessex Academy catchment area.

DIRECTIONS

From the Wedmore office proceed east along the Cheddar road, after a mile, take the road on the left called Rug Hill, continue up the hill where the road bends round to the left. At the Crickham Chapel take the lane straight ahead, Crickham Lane, and the property can be found shortly after on the left-hand side as marked by our 'For Sale' board.
