This wonderful two bedroom semi-detached bungalow occupies a good plot and has been updated by the current owners.

The property comprises of a side entrance hall which houses the accommodation off of it. To the front of the property is the wonderful living room with feature fire place and the second bedroom besides with a feature bay window. To the rear of the property is the kitchen which offers a conservatory to the rear and the refurbished principal bedroom. The accommodation is completed with the family bathroom suite. Outside there is a gravel front garden providing off road parking. The driveway runs past the side of the house and leads to the garage and again provides off road parking. To the rear of the property is a good size rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn and enclosed by timber fence.

The property also benefits from planning permission for a loft conversion, rear and side extension that will transform the property into a four bedroom and open plan kitchen/living space. Planning permission reference: 22/02745/FPH(26/10/2022)

Pirton is a small village and civil parish three miles north-east of Hitchin in Hertfordshire, England. The church, rebuilt in 1877, but with the remains of its 12th-century tower, is built within the bailey of a former castle. Pirton Grange, which was remodelled in the 18th century, is in the north of the parish, and is a particularly interesting, moated Elizabethan house with a timber framed gatehouse. Hammonds Farm and Rectory Farm, with its tithe barn, are also Elizabethan.

Agents notes: The property is owned by a relative of a Country Properties member of staff.
