DESCRIPTION

The property is located on land formerly a hop yard and since the early 1800's the then two miner's cottages were closely associated with the Somerset Coal Canal until the advent of rail.

It was converted many years ago with the present owners having lived in the property for approximately 25 years, modernising it and extending up into the roof to form an additional floor of accommodation.

The property features at ground level a wonderful living room with Inglenook fireplace, exposed stone walls, oak beams together with a further sitting room and kitchen/breakfast room.

On the upper 2 floors are 5 bedrooms with 3 bathrooms/shower rooms and a separate study.

The whole property is set in a wonderful, elevated location with fine views, gardens and paddocks totally approximately 3 acres. It should also be noted that planning permission and permitted development rights exist for further extensions to the kitchen and the erection of a triple garage, together with the re-building of the conservatory.
