ACCOMMODATION:

The ground floor begins with a front porch, leading into a dining area with a flagstone floor. From here, double doors open into an L-shaped kitchen, fitted with a range of units and work surfaces and space for appliances. A staircase from the kitchen leads to the first floor. There is also a door from the kitchen to the outside, where a public footpath gives direct access to the adjoining field, often used for dog walks. The ground floor also includes a carpeted living room and a separate room which could be used as a home office or study.

On the first floor, there are three bedrooms. Two of the bedrooms can accommodate a double bed and additional free-standing furniture, while the third is suitable for a single bed or other use such as a dressing room. The bathroom contains a bath, separate shower cubicle and basin which benefits from a skylight that provides natural light throughout the space. The shower cubicle features modern waterproof panelling fitted approximately two years ago and a light colour pallet to enhance the space.

This property provides a practical layout, outdoor space, and a location that offers both access to amenities and proximity to open countryside. It is a property that would be suitable for a small family or couple who want a character home with further scope to personalise to their own tastes.

OUTSIDE:

Outside, the property has a long rear garden running adjacent to an open field. The field is not expected to be developed upon ensuring the view and convenience remains. At the front, there is off-road parking for approximately two larger vehicles or three smaller ones ensuring that parking is always available.

SERVICES:

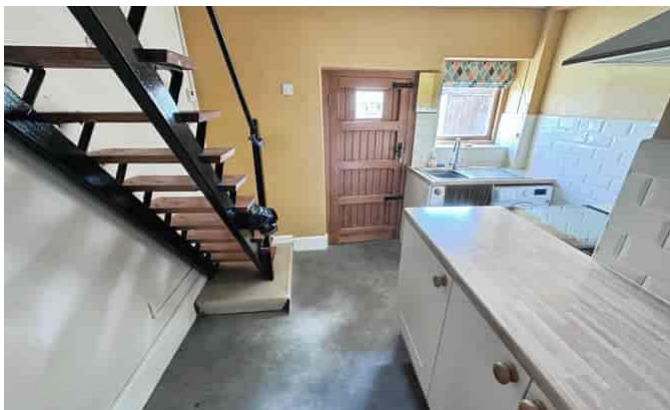

Mains gas, electric, water and drainage are connected, and gas central heating is installed. The property is currently banded B for council tax, within Somerset Council. Ofcom's service checker states that Good indoor & outdoor mobile coverage is available with one major provider, whilst Ultrafast broadband is available in the area.
