17 'The Rowans', Gloucester Road, Rudgeway, South Gloucestershire

Imagine the amazing sunsets! 'The Rowans' - this substantial detached spacious and airy house has been carefully extended over the years into the fine home we discover today. It sits at the head of a circa 0.47 acre plot, with stunning panoramic views over open countryside towards the Prince Of Wales Bridge and beyond across the River Severn into Wales. Behind the stone boundary wall at the front, there is off-street parking and a double integral garage. Beautifully tended gardens and secluded patio areas frame the rear of the house, with mature hedges at the sides and a footpath secreted away in one corner leading in zigzags down through your own private woodland to open fields below. A haven for wildlife and wild flowers - somewhere to get away from it all. Stepping inside the front door you are greeted by an impressive reception hall with window seat. This leads on to a large formal dining room, then on again through double doors into the dual-aspect drawing room - with a feature gas fireplace and patio doors to the garden (plus generous loft space above). A lovely dual-aspect garden room has doors to a raised terrace behind - a perfect spot for an evening drink and a sunset. The smart fitted kitchen/breakfast room comes complete with integrated appliances and there is plenty of space for a table and chairs as well. A utility room and cloakroom are off to the side and there is an internal door to the garage. The principal bedroom is a fantastic size, complemented by fitted wardrobes and a full luxury en-suite bathroom which has both a bath and a separate shower cubicle. The family bathroom mirrors these facilities and is shared by three other generous double bedrooms. Practical benefits include Upvc double-glazing and gas central heating. This beautifully presented home has so much to offer, with bags of space for a busy family to spread out, both inside and out. Country walks start right from the far end of the garden, out across the fields to Tockington and Old Down - each with village pubs to perhaps visit before making the return journey!
