Owner's View

We've really loved living here—it's been such a great spot for us. The location has been one of our favourite things, especially having the lovely walking routes to Lakeside right nearby—perfect for getting out and about. We've also made the most of the precinct just around the corner; the wine bar there has become our favourite spot. The house itself has been amazing. The kitchen is spacious, bright, and complete with built-in appliances—a great space for cooking, entertaining and family life. The living room has such a cosy feel, and while we've kept the chopped wood look, there's definitely space to pop in a log burner if you fancy. The bathroom's a good size, and the rest of the house is light and airy throughout. We also love the shutter blinds at the front—they look great and give you that extra bit of privacy. It's been a lovely place to call home.
