

This wonderful family home is situated within the heart of a popular residential area. The immediate location offers access to a range of excellent local schools such as Lynch Hill Academy & Burnham Grammar School, both of which are located a short walk away. Transport links are provided by nearby Burnham train station (Elizabeth Line) and easy access to M4 & M40 junctions.

The property itself is the perfect first time buy and offers all you need to create a long term home. Internally the accommodation is spread across two floors, downstairs you will find the dual aspect 21 ft lounge/diner.

This room has large patio doors that bring in ample natural light and provide an entrance into the rear garden. The modern kitchen is also on the ground floor. Upstairs is home to all THREE bedrooms and the main family bathroom. The current owners have maintained the property very well.

To the rear there is a private and enclosed rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn. This area is perfect for the entire family to enjoy.
