Ystrad Fach Agents Comments

The Old Dairy Ystradfach Farm, a superbly located successful holiday letting business Situated between Kidwelly and Carmarthen in an elevated position with its absolutely breathtaking, far reaching countryside views, Close to Pembrey Beach, multiple character properties, Retreat breakfast room/catering kitchen, stables, sand school and about 15 acres (stms – subject to measured survey) this really is an amazing opportunity to purchase something unique.

Entering the property you approach via a private tree lined driveway, at the top the driveway forks left and right. Following the driveway to left, you access the stables, the retreat with kitchen and WC, shepherd's hut with a decked area to the front, stores, which are located above the stables, sand school and the land which is split into generous animal paddocks, with access down to the river, perfect for fishing or taking a picnic down for lunch.

To the right, the driveway leads up to where the accommodation is. This includes a three-bedroom detached Farmhouse, a three-bedroom detached cottage (Barn Owl), and three en-suite letting/B&B rooms, one of which also has its own lounge and adjoined to these rooms is another three-bedroom cottage (Wren Cottage). Each of the cottages also has its own private fenced garden. The current vendors whilst living in one of the properties have rented the other rooms, shepherd's hut and cottages out as Bed and Breakfast and have created a successful business. The B&B suites and Barn Owl Cottage can be left furnished ready for the new owners to start straight away. There are so many options for the new owners, whether you would like to continue doing something like how it runs now or are looking for that dream set-up where you can have multi-generational living, but allow everyone to have their own space, this property offers it all. (the vendors can confirm there are no footpaths or bridleways over the land see reference at end. There is a right of access to an adjoining property).
