Description

A gorgeous character cottage in the heart of the conservation area of Berkhamsted, with original features and an excellent location only a short walk away from the charming town and train station.

A cosy sitting room with wooden flooring, sash window and a cast iron wood burning stove on a quarry tiled hearth, with a panel door to an open plan kitchen with exposed brickwork, quartz worktops and bamboo flooring. A central island incorporates an integrated dishwasher and Belfast sink, with the dining room enjoying the benefit of a double height ceiling with velux windows and bi-fold doors to the enclosed patio and rear garden.

The staircase leads to the first floor, with new wooden flooring and ladder access to the fully boarded loft, which has the added benefit of a velux window. The main bedroom has wooden floors, sash window and an original cast iron fireplace, the second double bedroom has new wooden floors a sash window and fitted wardrobes. The bathroom has been completely renovated and is fully tiled with a sash window, a large sink with built in storage, floor to ceiling radiator and a walk-in thermostatic shower.

The rear garden is a peaceful enclosed oasis in the heart of Berkhamsted with two patio areas and lawn with shrubs. The garden shed is double height, with an extendable ladder to gain access to the upper level, electric lighting and power sockets. To the side of the property there is a gated covered passageway providing access from the rear garden to the front of the house.
