The Property

A truly stunning, semi-detached home forming part of a small and select development in the heart of Romsey Town Centre.

The ground floor accommodation comprises a generous and welcoming entrance hall opening into a double aspect, open plan kitchen/dining/sitting room with attractive engineered oak flooring and double doors opening into the courtyard garden. The 'Herbert Willaims' designed kitchen features a stylish range of fitted units, together with built-in 'Neff' appliances, granite worksurfaces and a corner breakfast bar. Further rooms to this level include a separate utility room and a modern shower room' with 'Porcelanosa fittings.

The first floor is equally impressive with a double aspect principal bedroom offering an extensive array of storage options and a good size guest bedroom. Both bedrooms also benefit from part vaulted ceilings and additional roof light windows.

The first-floor layout is completed by an impressive 'Porcelanosa' fitted luxury family bathroom.

Outside

French doors from the kitchen/dining/sitting room open out into an enclosed courtyard garden with attractive walled borders and separate gated access.

The property also benefits from two private car parking spaces, a rare commodity for the centre of Romsey. These spaces are located either side of the property.

Location

The property lies in the heart of the thriving old market town of Romsey and within moments of its excellent range of local amenities and facilities, which include an extensive range of shops, cafes, restaurants, bars, doctors and dentist surgeries, the charming 'Plaza' theatre and both Aldi and Waitrose supermarkets. There are also numerous leisure facilities and an excellent range of both private and state schools.

Romsey has a railway station and further benefits from first class communication links via the M27 and A36. Both Southampton and Bournemouth airports serve a variety of European destinations. A wide range of outdoor pursuits are well catered for with the New Forest being within easy reach and sailing on the Solent.
