Description

Located on the desirable Castle Street in the centre of Stroud, this handsome three bedroom Georgian townhouse combines elegant period features with tasteful modern updates. Carefully renovated throughout, the property offers stylish and comfortable living in one of the town's most attractive streets.

The sitting room features a sash window with original shutters, solid oak flooring and a stone hearth fireplace, creating a warm and welcoming space. From here, you step through to the bespoke kitchen/diner, complete with a Belfast sink, terracotta and slate tiled floor and sash window with views over the garden. A utility area and separate cloakroom sit just off the kitchen, with a door leading out to the rear garden. On the first floor is a generously sized double bedroom and a large, bright family bathroom with both a separate shower and bath, complemented by a marble fireplace, stripped floors, and sash window. Two further bedrooms are found on the top floor, one of which is currently used as a cinema room, offering great flexibility for family life, guests or home working. Just a short stroll from Stroud's vibrant town centre, the property is within easy reach of shops, cafés, restaurants, and the award-winning farmers' market. The mainline station is also nearby, with regular services to London and other major hubs.

Outside

The rear garden is a peaceful and private courtyard-style space, enclosed by attractive redbrick walling. Landscaped with paved areas and raised sleeper-edged borders, the garden is planted with a mix of mature shrubs and flowering plants. Climbing plants soften the space with colour and texture, and the sunny aspect makes it ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

The nearby area benefits from a convenience store, the Crown and Sceptre pub, Daisy Bank and walks at The Heavens.
