Guide Price £360,000

John Smale and Co are delighted to offer the market an impressive four bedroomed double fronted property, benefitting from a self contained one bedroomed annexe, wonderful sea views and a range of period and character features. A gated pathway leads to the main house, but also forks off to another gated pathway, leading to the rear of the property and spacious annexe, along with secluded garden areas.

The annexe has its own private entrance and courtyard garden, along with generous double bedroom/living area with high ceiling and shower and a well equipped kitchen. The annexe has served as a great independent rental unit, with proven rental income over several years. It also offers a great space for a dependent family member who wishes to maintain their independence, or possibly a great guest retreat, or family member looking to stay at home whilst saving to buy a property.

The main house is offers a lovely rustic style and ambience, with attractive features such as high ceilings and wooden floors. There are two spacious living rooms with bay windows on the ground floor, along with a charming kitchen/diner with open fireplace and French doors opening to the rear. The hallway also has a doorway which could link up the annexe accommodation if desired.

The first floor benefits from four large double bedrooms, along with a family bathroom and and separate W/C on the half landing. The front facing rooms take full advantage of the fabulous views, towards the sea and Northam Burrows.

The gardens wrap around three sides of the property, comprising of terraced and private seating areas, offering a great deal of peace and tranquillity, with the front garden having some lovely views. The annexe also benefits from its own private courtyard garden.
